COUGAR '67
Albany High School
603 Key Route Blvd.
Albany, California

Miss Margaret Gilchrist has been a Spanish teacher at Albany High since 1931. During 1947-50, she taught in Japan through the Army. Miss Gilchrist taught in Mexico as a part of the California Teachers' Association "Mexican" Project.

DEDICATION

Miss Gilchrist, we have dedicated the 1967 Cougar to you in the hope you will see it as a symbol: a symbol that represents your today and the today of many students to whom you daily imparted your experience and knowledge. These students someday will look back on your teaching and remember your integrity, kindness, and fairness when they stumbled and fell in the face of new experiences.

We hope you will see that tomorrow is today and that the students you had in 1931, when AHS was Herbert Hoover Junior High, are now mature citizens, and that in each one is a small part of you. Even the students who have just passed from Spanish I to Spanish II will have shared in your today, and will be a part of the future.

As we dedicate this book to you, we wish that your tomorrow be as meaningful and successful as your accomplishments today.

Of great events stride on before the events,
And in to-day already walks tomorrow.

Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Tomorrow's musicians, today.

Dedication Of The Industrial Arts
And Fine Arts Buildings Thursday,
March 2, 1967, In The Little Theater

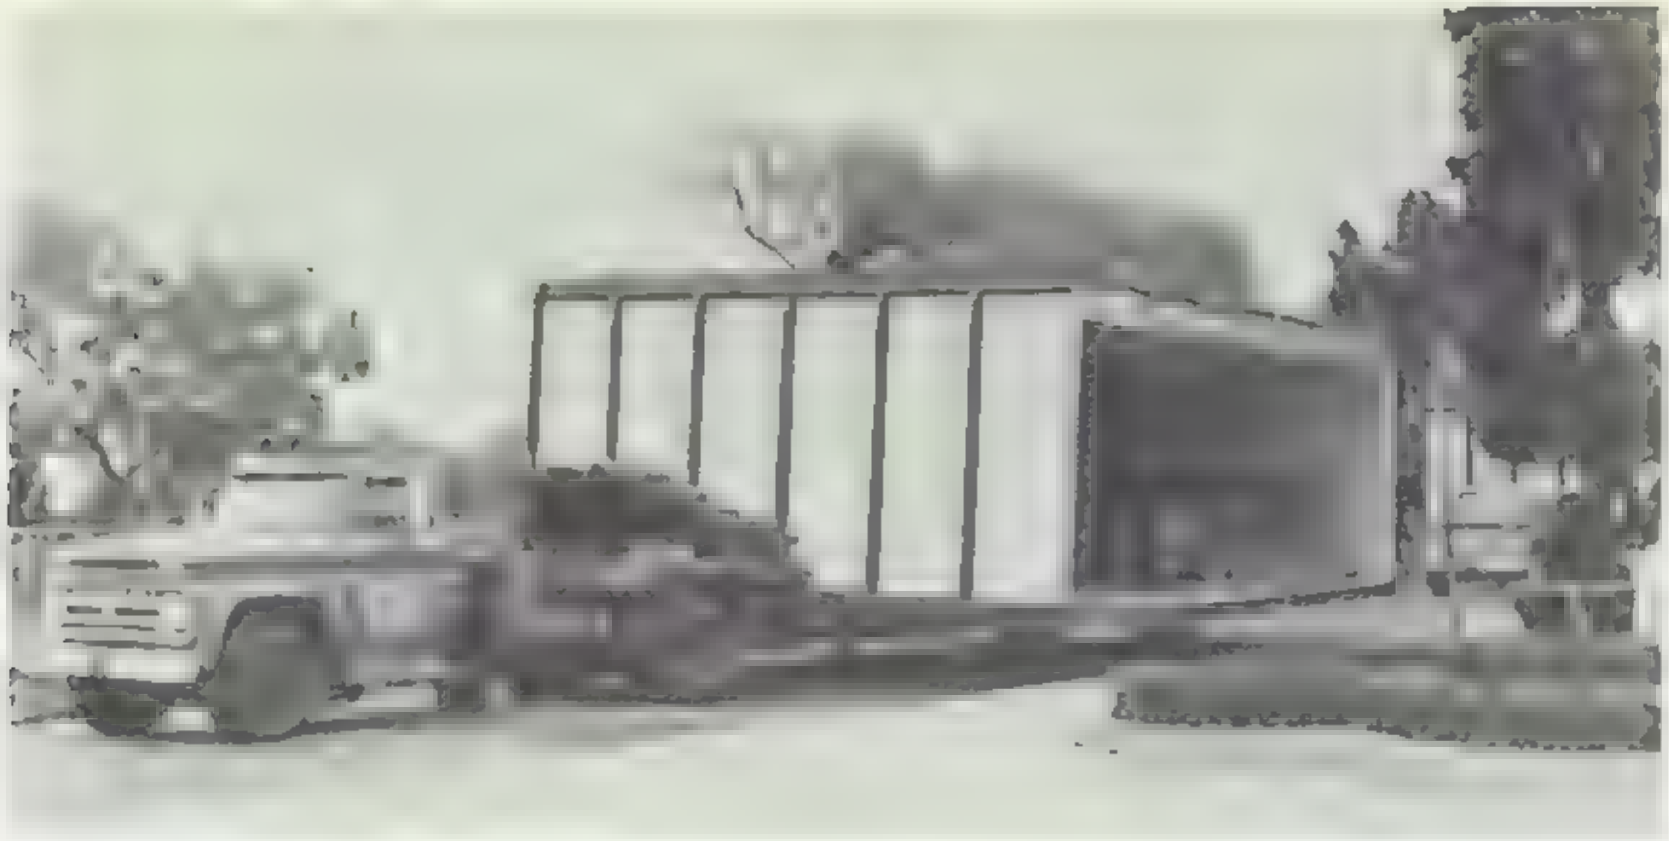

American Legion Post 292 performing the flag ceremony.

Mr. Charles Pinkham, president of the Board of Education, speaking from the podium on the stage of Albany's new Little Theater.

The coming of the new, the leaving of the old. A nostalgic look at the choir portable being removed from the AHS campus.

A group of physics students in the newly constructed physics lab in the old building.

All Hail

All hail to the Red and White
Colors proud and true
Beneath our banners bright
We'll strive for victories new
Our fame and glory ever sing
Our loyalty will never fail
Let the mighty chorus ring
All Hail Red and White, All Hail!

Happy the man, and happy he alone,
He who can call to-day his own;
He who, secure within, can say,
To-morrow, do thy worst, for I have liv'd to-day.

John Dryden

A parking lot. . . a hole in the ground.
and the beginning of new buildings — buildings that Albany High School has needed and waited for for over 30 years. Tomorrow we were to be taught in brand new $875,000 facilities that would house industrial arts, the music department, art rooms, and homemaking

But today finally arrived, and the eighth graders who used the old buildings are now seniors and the new facilities have at last been completed. Children of tomorrow will not remember the old "canteen", the creaking Annex, the filthy but well-loved "church", and the miniature world of the cottage. When they look back on their today, they will only remember steel and glass-plated buildings and the slight discomfort of construction. But tomorrow's students will never have the great feeling of accomplishment that today's do.

CONSTRUCTION, ANTICIPATION. . .

COMPLETION!

Our youth we can have but to-day
We may always find time to grow old

Our first year's poster show now in the spacious and airy new room which is a part of the Free Arts Building.

As a part of the Industrial Arts Building, the new shop is a testing ground for new ways of doing things.

ATS's skilled workers are learning to show the modern world in the modern workshop.

At Last Our Buildings
Were Completed And Ready For Use After Years Of Waiting.

After a long wait for the new building, Mr. Douglas and his family have finally found a home in the new Fine Arts Building.

Mr. Johnson's classroom with its plush seats is quite an improvement over the old room with hard wooden chairs.

Something as small as a piece of metal can prove a challenge. AHS students in the new building have many such opportunities.

And Now . . .

Today

Tomorrow be today.

... is Tomorrow

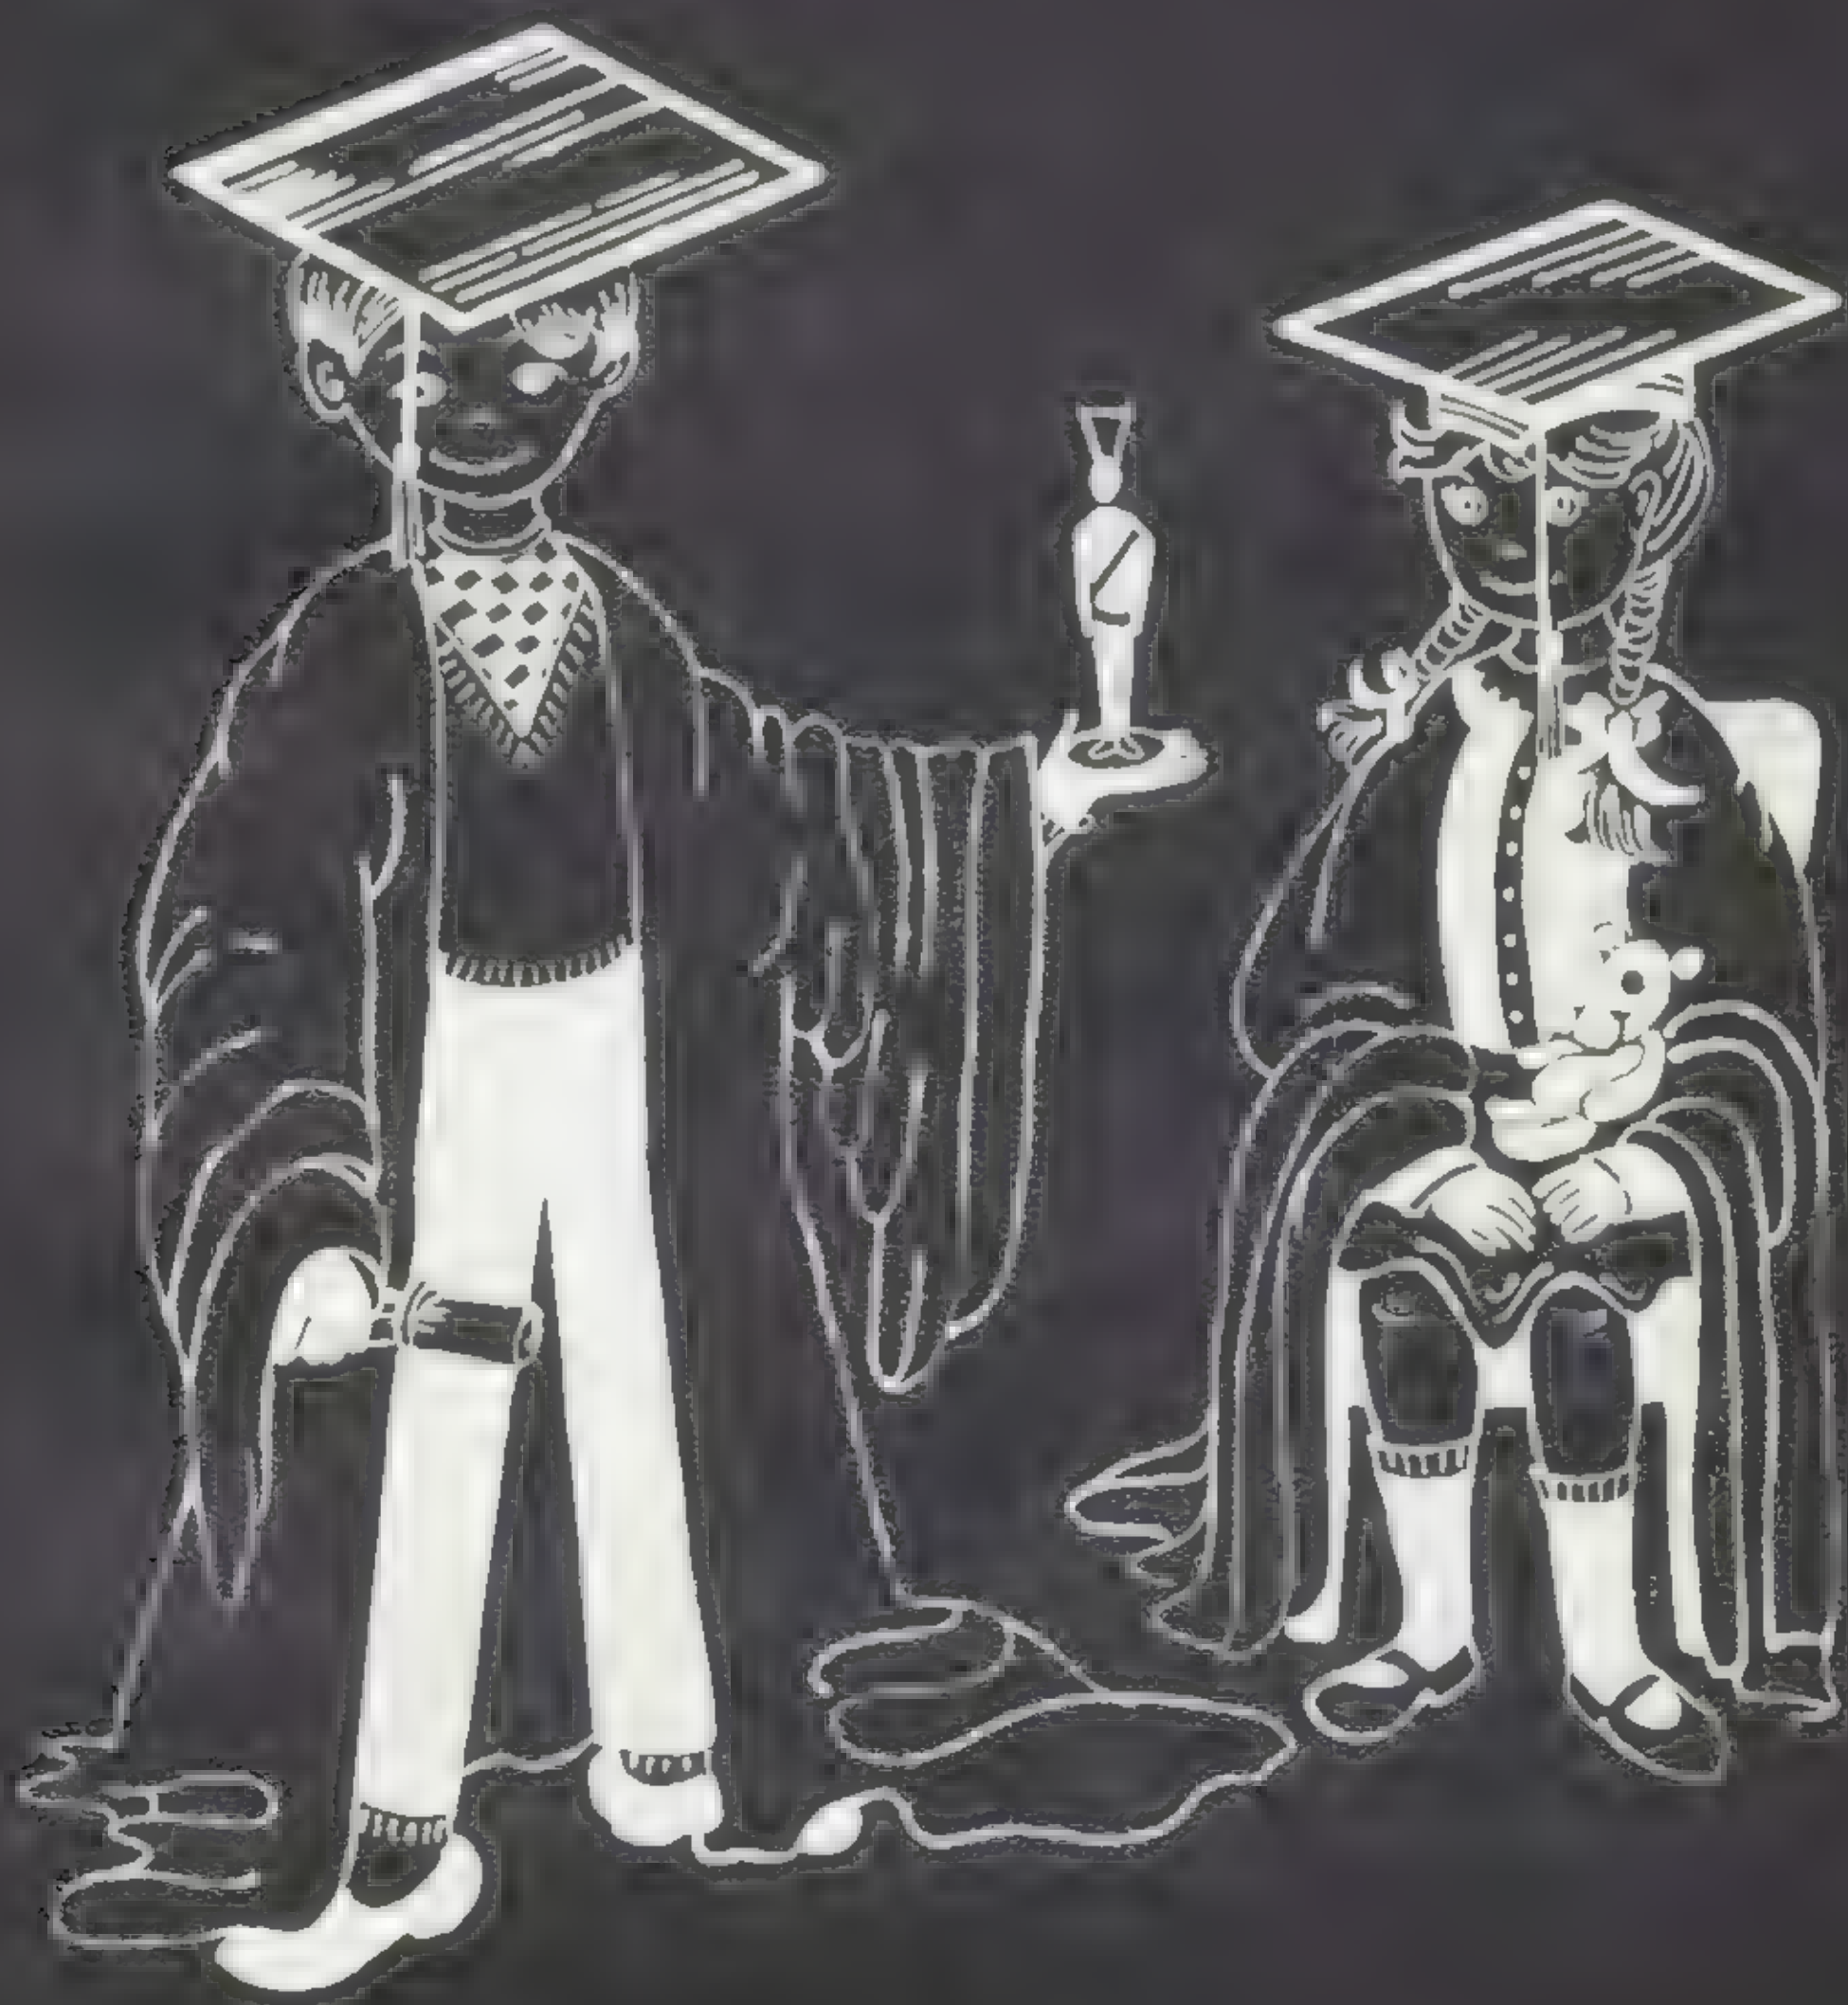

Our young models from the first grade at Cornell Grammar School will graduate from Albany High . . . At the same time we see the pictures of the faces through a new perspective

It is our forecast of the future and of the youth of today, tomorrow's citizens and leaders will continue to be made in an ever increasing state of change and advancement. Recognizing that there is a constant and rapid change in the life of youth in the future, we will seek to expect a similar pattern in the next generation.

Advancement of science and technology brings corresponding pressures on sociological, economic and political endeavors. The youth of today is encouraged to study and learn with the ever sciences because they will undoubtedly be the key to the solution of many problems of the future. We are giving the youth the present and the future of education with the necessary and proper training to meet the demands of democracy and freedom.

It is our hope that we have helped the youth of today in these regards.

COUGAR STAFF

CAROL THOMPSON CO-EDITOR

PAT NELSON, CO-EDITOR

"If tomorrow were only today!", exclaimed the two Cougar editors, as they frantically pushed the staff to meet the last-minute deadlines.

But it wasn't, and section heads and editors were often found in the familiar Room 110 working until dinner-time and later, five-days-a-week. Because of the unusual format of this book and the new methods of putting it together, many Saturdays and Sundays were spent "sweating" to get things just right so the editors and Mr. Stone, advisor, would be satisfied.

The only reward for the hours of toil and trouble by the staff is if you will treasure the 1967 Cougar tomorrow and remember its today at its best.

Harassed again by a shortage of players, this year's Varsity football team won only one game, a 33-12 thrashing of St. Vincents. One of the few bright spots of this season was Chad Baca making all-league defensive halfback and Tom Scheer and Ken Niehaus making all-league second-string. John Woody, for his part in the win over St. Vincents, was named Prep of the Week by the Berkeley Gazette. At the annual Lion's Club football dinner, Tom Scheer received the Most Valuable Player award for his stamina throughout the season. Other awards were Niel Bair, Most Inspirational Player; Steve Layne, Most Valuable Lineman; Chad Baca, Most Valuable Back; and Ken Niehaus, Most Valuable Player by the coaches.

This season can be summed up by saying experience was gained by the coaches for the benefit of next year's Varsity team.

This year's Junior Varsity football team won more than either the Varsity or Freshmen. Led by a very devoted James Greenwood, the J.V.'s achieved victories over John Swett and St. Vincents. The purpose of a Junior Varsity football team is to give younger players a chance to play and gain experience and be ready for the Varsity team the next year. In this sense, this team was very successful. There are several players who will add a lift to next year's Varsity team. Captains Robbie Tracey and Don Newell felt that the spirit was good and attendance at practice was better than ever, but the team lacked the desire to hit

This year's Tennis Team, under the direction of Coach Choy, struggled through the year with a 2-8 season. Even though the season had only 2 wins, both against John Swett, there are many up and coming net men that should prove for a better season next year. According to Coach Choy this season can be described as a "building" season, which should prove as a good basis for the 1967 tennis season. Ted Valli, a junior who should be a major determining factor of next year's team, was quoted as saying, "I feel that next year's team should be great. Nobody really played a bad match and with the experience gained this season, we should have a winning season next year." Let's hope that he is right, and we will see a victorious team next year.

This year's basketball team, in his best description, was described by Captain John Woody. "The probable cause of our big success this year was the fact that we had the desire to win a game and keep on winning."

Manager: Rodney Ferry, Coach: Craig Orthlieb, Manager: Larry Belote

SENIOR STARS

The Senior stars this year would have been great had the spirit of the ball club been higher. If a prize were given to the most "unselfish ball player," the prize would probably go to Dave McCollum. Many times was David open for a fair shot, but he passed the ball to someone else in better position. This was not only true of Dave, but of other Seniors as well. A few seniors who were always good for points when they were badly needed were Larry Lotsprich, Steve Goldman, Tom Scheer, and John Woody. This year's seniors have set good examples of what next year's seniors and all varsity players should strive for.

The main problem with the J.V. team can be expressed, as with the varsity, in the lack of team spirit and support of the student body. It's very possible next year's team could be a winner with the support of the student body.

Despite the efforts of this year's freshman basketball team, the season will most likely be a lackluster one even though they did show promise of effort and good quality. The prospects for next year's team are considered good. They seem to show a better shooting ability along with more height and good talent. The team is under the guidance of Mr. Greenwood.

ROW 1: Dick Handlow, Ted Valli, Lloyd Hawkinson, Randy Bolte, Bob Graham, Noel Laverty
ROW 2: Jim Vila, Mark Backlund, Don M... Missy ... State ... Graham, Tom Matsuo, Peter H...

This year's swimming team has many members who have made an outstanding performance during the first couple of meets. Among these are Jim Vila, Ted Valli and Dick Handlow. Coach Dwight expects Noel Laverty to go all the way to the North Coast Sectional. Mr. Dwight seemed quite optimistic about next year's team.

J.V. SWIMMING

This year's Junior Varsity Swimming Team, according to Coach Carl Dwight, will supply the nucleus for a good varsity team next year. Dwight also mentioned that the most improved player this year was Ross Gershensen, and Terry Gross should help to make next year's team a success.

SEASON SNAPS

First Baseman Kevin O'Gorman keeps opposition close to the bag

John Woods gets on with a line drive base hit

Larry Gurney foules this one off but gets a base hit two plays later

Brad Smith whips one in down the line

Russ Klobas hits a ground ball along the third base line.

Woody releases a fast ball against St. Vincent's.

J.V. BASEBALL

ROW 1: Tom Turner, Gerry Behman, Brian Hollman, Rick Holcomb, Larry Dutcher, Mike Ghirtoni
 ROW 2: Rick Holcomb, Jim Schlindler, Joe Griffin, Tom Turner, Ed Bernard, George Williams, Mike Reed, Tom Dyer, Curt Pihl, George Jackle

This year's Junior Varsity baseball team, under the coaching of Mr. Ingram, shows much promise this season. The team has shown much ability and spirit so far this season. If this keeps up, it should be a successful season for the team this year.

It's a base hit for Varsity Player Mike Prasente

As was the case for the football season, it is considered as being no season for the track team. Since it is a vacation on the part of the team, we will be turning next year. It should provide a successful season.

TRACKMEN IN ACTION

Field Man Mitch Marengo uses perfect form as he practices before a meet

Lon Scher sets school record in high jump

Sophomore Bruce Schroeffel leaves the ground in the broad jump event

Rich Goforth keeps a steady pace as Albany takes a third

"B" TRACK

This year's "B" Track team, even though not as successful, shows quite a bit of potential for next year. Another factor determining the success of the team is the size; and this year's team was definitely lacking that. With a bigger squad next year, the "B" team stands a very good chance for a successful season.

In three generations of serving, we have learned that one should never hesitate to lean upon the experience of others . . . to seek the counsel of his or her parents, clergyman and instructors. As we have used this lesson in building a family tradition of funeral service excellence, we hope that you, too, will remember it to good advantage in whatever endeavor you choose as your life's work.
